

friends in need

*When you feel so sad,
and life is unfair.
When you want to cry,
but no one is there.
Just pick your phone,
and give me a call.*

*When you need someone,
to talk and share.
When you need a shoulder,
to throw your problem on.
Just pick up your phone;
and give me a call.*

*When you feel so mad,
and life is unbearable.
When you want to stand,
and face the impossible.
Just pick up your phone,
and give me a call.*

*Cause no one can help,
no one can understand.
Except me,
your best friend.*
